

FAQs for Recreational Class Registration

1. If the class is already full, should I bother with the Waitlist?
  - YES!!
2. How will I know that a spot is now available?
  - When a spot opens, the online system will email EVERYONE on the waitlist at the same time. The first person to register will get the spot.
  - Register even if you're already in another class. We can take care of the other class cancellation from our side later!
  - Choose offline payment if you've already paid for another class. We can transfer fees across to the new class.
3. The CanGym badge order is as follows:
  - 1) burgundy, 2) red, 3) tan, 4) bronze, 5) purple, 6) blue,
  - 7) turquoise, 8) silver, 9) orange, 10) yellow, 11) green & 12) gold.
4. When choosing what class to register in, what do I need to know?
  - If you have no badges a burgundy or a red Cangym badge, then register in the Beginner Recreational class. Athletes in these classes are working on burgundy, red and tan CanGym badges. Classes are coed & age based.
  - If you have earned a tan or bronze Cangym badge, then register in the Intermediate Recreational class. Athletes in these classes are working on bronze and purple Cangym badges. These classes are Coed.
  - If you have earned your purple Cangym badge, then register in the Advanced Recreational class. Athletes in these classes are working on blue Cangym badges or higher.

5. How to register regarding age?

-If your child will be the correct age before the last day of class, then go ahead and register in that class.

-For example: The class runs Feb 27th – May 8th and my child won't be 3 until April 4th? Yes, you can register in Tykes 3.

6. My child is 4 but will be 5 during the session. Should I move him up to Beginner Recreational class?

-We would suggest YES, but once again, you know your child best. Stay in Tykes 4 or move up to Beginner Rec class, it's up to you.

7. When a class says, "working burgundy, red & tan badges," it means they have no badge, have earned burgundy or have earned red badge.

8. If you have a credit on your account and you would like to use it on your next registration, go through the entire online registration process. At the very end, the online system will ask if you would like to use your credit. Choose yes! You must choose to pay in full. You cannot use a credit when paying with instalments.
