

PARKOUR

This class involves moving efficiently and fluidly over obstacles and in many environments. We work on vaults, and flips, such as wall backflips. It differs from gymnastics in that the movement patterns are less static, use many different set ups, and the sport is meant to be done outside in an urban environment. You will get reeeaally good at falling safely.

